

ONLINE LEGAL COURSE ON “SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ADULTS”

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Jesuit Research and Development Society (JRDS), New Delhi, through the resource team of the Centre for Human Rights and Law (CHRL), is organizing a 5-day Online Legal Course on Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults from 25 to 29, November 2024.

Rationale:

The Indian legal system has gone a long way towards developing a strong and rigorous child protection mechanism, yet violence against children is still widespread. Human Rights are the most basic rights. Children and Vulnerable adults may find it difficult to lead a comfortable life, if the basic rights are not ensured by the law. This online course is organized to discuss the legal rights provided to the vulnerable groups in India.

Who Will Benefit:

This program is specifically curated and recommended for people who are interested in working for the vulnerable.

Course details:

What are the Objectives:

- To raise awareness about the risks, sign and impact of abuse, neglect and exploitation
- To empower the group by educating them about their rights, consent and supportive services .
- To cultivate empathy, vigilance and proactive prevention attitudes
- To Impart legal knowledge.

Who will be conducting this program:

The seminar will be conducted by qualified and eminent people in the field of law and legal practice. The emphasis is to impart knowledge by means of discussion, case studies, and interactions through online platforms.

What we expect:

- ☑ Refreshing and cherishing the rights guaranteed by the legal system.
- ☑ Empowering them to overcome future struggles.

Perks:

1. Certificate: Every participant (who attains 80% of attendance) will be provided a certificate from the Indian Social Institute, New Delhi. A payment receipt along with the certificate will be sent to the concern address.
